ARF needs a place to call home!

ARF's mission is to rescue stray or abandoned dogs and cats from First Nations communities and rural areas and place them in loving homes while providing programs to reduce pet overpopulation. In order to further this mission a permanent facility is needed. This facility will be used to temporarily house sick or injured animals and offer refuge for nursing mothers as well as provide a headquarters for ARF.

Entering into our 3rd year of fundraising we have reached $400,000 of our $1,000,000 goal; raised in majority by grassroots fundraising efforts.
